

Objectives

- 1- Provide students with full and deep knowledge of English language and literature as well as translation by using modern technologies;
- 2- Qualify graduates for the labour market;
- 3- Develop students' skills of thinking, creativity, problem solving and self-learning;
- 4- Enhance continuous development of staff members' performance;
- 5- Promote staff members' research work;
- 6- Attract high-qualified staff members at the local and international levels;
- 7- Maintain quality in all educational, research and administrative practices;
- 8- Conduct regular evaluations of the department's performance in order to improve educational and research practices;
- 9- Play an effective role in the service of the local community.