

Student Innovation Center Reception of the Centennial Valley Delegation

Under The guidance of His Excellency the Vice President of Graduate Studies and Research, Dr. Mohammed bin Abdullah Al Shaya, Dr. Bakhit bin Awad Al Rashidi, Director of Student Innovation center, was assigned to receive a delegation of the Centennial Valley at the Center. Dr. Ibrahim Mohammed Zein, the academic adviser to the Centennial Fund, and Mr. Mohammed Abdullah Arfag, supervisor of the Centennial Valley headed the delegation. The Centennial Valley Initiative is one of the Centennial Fund initiatives launched by His Royal Highness Prince Abdul Aziz bin Abdullah, Deputy Foreign Minister and Chairman of the Board of Trustees of the Centennial Fund. This initiative aims to spread the culture of entrepreneurship, and encourage creativity and innovation through awareness and training activities as well as supporting ideas and innovative projects financially and academically to be converted into globally competitive products. Dr. Bakhit bin Awad Al-Rashidi has said that the meeting purported to create a centennial club at the university with the interest in providing financial support for projects, research and business innovation and extension support for university students through training and guidance leading to the conversion of students' innovation ideas to featured economic product. University students' participation progresses quickly technically and creatively, which is transformed by their winning of positions in local and international competitions. Finally the Centennial Valley delegation was thanked and praised for their contribution.
