Module Title:	Advanced Writing (413 Eng.)
Module ID:	413 Eng
Prerequisite (Co-requisite) :	312 Eng.
Level:	Level 7 / fourth Year
Credit Hours:	3

Module Description

In this course, students practice producing the longer and substantial essay of several paragraphs. Attention is given to the process of developing formal argumentative essays and the short research paper. Emphasis is given to rules of evidence and the methods of presenting it to support the points of view expressed. This should prepare the students to write a term paper of 1250 words or more in which they show their ability to handle the mechanics of research and to read from secondary sources. In addition, students are encouraged to write about literature perceptively and in an organized manner.

Module Aims

1	Understand the elements and strategies of argumentation.	1
2	Critically read, analyze, and evaluate written arguments.	2
3	Produce longer and substantial essay of several paragraphs on unseen topics.	3
4	Employ the skills and strategies of argumentation in their argumentative writing.	4
5	Conduct research about a certain topic or issue related to argument.	5
6	Write a term paper (on literature or linguistics) of 1250 or more words which demonstrates the ability to handle the mechanics of research and to read from secondary sources.
