

Program Educational Objectives (PEOs)

The Graduates of the Civil Engineering Program at Majmaah University will:

- Have a successful career in the civil engineering profession as practicing engineers and consultants in diverse areas that include structural, geotechnical, transportation, water resources and environmental engineering; or other related emerging fields.
- Demonstrate leadership and managerial skills through seeking professional licensure, identifying and solving emerging issues of community, country at global level.
- Be committed to have life-long learning and professional development in pursuing higher studies and state of the art research to identify and solve real life civil engineering problems.

Gain high quality engineering expertise and maintain a keen awareness of ethical, social, environmental, and global engineering challenges.

Number of Enrolled Students and Graduates for CEE Department (2010-2017)

Year	Faculty	Students Enrolled	Graduates	Labs
2010	1	53	0	0
2011	3	87	0	4
2012	5	114	0	6
2013	8	163	0	8
2014	9	192	3	8
2015	11	169	35	9
2016	12	167	35	9
2017	12	163	29	9