Making the database E-marefa available on the university campus without restrictions

Without an account on the university campus, the database E-marefa have been made available through this link http://e-marifah.net/kwc/app/f?p=109:1

The Arabic electronic database MAREFA is a pioneering database that presents wealthy scientific content. This content includes full texts of specialized scientific articles in several databases. These articles have been collected from hundreds of publishers in the Arab world.
